CALL FOR PAPERS

Special Issue: New Developments in Economics and Finance with Advanced Methodologies

Guest Editor: Mei-Yuan Chen (National Chung Hsing University, Taiwan)

Journal of Economics and Management (<http://www.jem.org.tw/>, ISSN 1819-0197) invites submissions for a special issue on the subject of “New Developments in Economics and Finance with Advanced Methodologies”, which is scheduled to be published in 2020. Professor Mei-Yuan Chen of National Chung Hsing University is the Guest Editor for this special issue.

Any original research that empirically studies economic and finance topics with advanced methodologies and/or big data will be considered for publication. The topics may be associated with the studies on economic issues with big data and financial issues with high frequency data. Advanced methodologies, such as functional data analysis, are highly welcome. Contributors may also send papers on any other aspect that is related to the above issues.

The deadline for manuscript submission is May 31, 2020. Submitted papers should not have been previously published nor be currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. For further details on the submission guidelines, please see the Instructions for Authors at the journal website: <http://www.jem.org.tw/>. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact JEM editorial office (e-mail: jem@mail.fcu.edu.tw).
